

EVENTS SEMINARS MEETINGS TALKS

Tenants at several Brooklyn buildings owned by Shamah Properties got recently treated to a jazz performance by The Albert Marques Jazz Group performed at One St. Paul's Court in Ditmas Park in the building's lobby. And several weeks ago, they hosted a harpist who played a classical concert for residents. "We like bringing cultural arts programs to our properties because it's an event where tenants can get to know each other and feel as though they live in a community," said Alan Shamah, CEO of Shamah Properties. L to R: Albert Marques, the band leader, piano, composer, Albert Miranda on bass, Gianni Gagliardi Dell Agnolo on saxophone and Alejandro Enriquez on drums.